AS YOUNG AS YOUR KIDNEYS

The secret of youth is ELIMINATION OF POISONS from your body. This done, you can live to be a hundred and enjoy the good things of life with as much pep as you did when you were a young fellow. Keep your kidneys in good condition, that's the secret.

Watch the kidneys. They filter and purify the blood, all of which blood passes through them once every three minutes. Keep them clean and in proper working condition and you have nothing to fear. Drive the poisonous wastes and deadly uric acid accumulations from your system. Take GOLD MEDAL Haaslem Oil Capsules and you will always be in good condition. You will feel strong and vigorous, with steady nerves and elastic muscles.

They are a reliable remedy which has been used by the sturdy Dutch for over 200 years, and has helped them to develop into one of the strongest and healthiest races of the world. Get them from your druggist. Do not take a substitute. In sealed packages—three sizes.

COLUMBIA

Mrs. A. E. Brown is with her daughter, Hattie Webster, of Manchester. During her absence her sister, Mrs. J. N. Clarke, is caring for her home.

In accordance with instructions just received, the sum of $1,000, held in trust by Charles K. Hitchcock, chairman of the United war work campaign, has been paid to the treasurer of the local committee in Williamsville. This amount is additional to $500 previously given by a well known patriotic woman residing here during the summer but withheld at her request, awaiting her decision as to how the gift was to be applied. Columbia's subscription to the united war work campaign is now $1,764, or more than five times its quota of $350.

Mr. and Mrs. Abbott Little were delighted to meet their son Horace in Williamsville Thursday afternoon. The young soldier was en route from Washington to Camp Devens to be mustered out, which he expects early this week.

Several started to fill icehouses last week, but in some cases obtained less than five or six inches thick, besides finding it very difficult to secure.

The grange held installation last Wednesday evening. The installing officer was Fred Taylor of Lebanon, assisted by Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Bliss. The officers are: Luther Buell, master; Harvey Collins, overseer; Raymond E. Clarke, secretary; Howard Bliss, treasurer; Ethel Blackley, lecturer; Clayton E. Hunt, chaplain; steward, Henry Schrieffer; assistant steward, Francis Frederick; lady assistant steward, Marion Holmes; gatekeeper, Louis Hennouin; Ceres, Helen L. Clarke; Flora, Mrs. Raymond Squier; Pomona, Myrtle Collins. A very pleasing entertainment was given during the lecture's hour by Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Bliss and daughter Miriam of Norwich, who played the bones, bells and piano, respectively, with great ability. Demits were granted Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Buell, Hattie Brown Webster and Carrie Frost Locke. Resolutions in commemoration of Sisters Eunice Hunt and Carrie Palmer were adopted and the charter ordered draped in mourning for 30 days. The trustees of the Congregational church in Columbia made public the following statement at the Sunday morning service: Special trust funds in savings banks, $2,533.70; town of Columbia loans, $3,400; Liberty bonds, $2,000; total invested funds, $11,333.70, drawing from 4 to 4 1/2 per cent interest. Recently a committee of nine members was appointed to make a house to house canvass to obtain pledges for the support of the church, which resulted in the securing of $729.44 from 88 pledges, $162.25 of which constitutes a new contribution to the resources of the church.

Miss Lena Wolff, who has been ill for some time since an attack of influenza, is now able to be about.

Mrs. Emily A. Little has a severe attack of myalgia.
